63rd Street Bridge over Dan Ryan Reopens

CHICAGO – The Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) announced that the reconstructed 63rd Street bridge, over the Dan Ryan Expressway (Interstate 90/94), in Chicago, reopens to traffic and pedestrians on Friday, Feb. 5.

Temporary lane closures will still be necessary to complete remaining traffic signal work and pavement marking installation.

Drivers are urged to pay close attention to flaggers and signs in the work zones, obey the posted speed limits and be on the alert for workers and equipment.
